

Biography:

Thomas Liebert, Head, External Relations & Conference, IOPC Funds

Mr Thomas Liebert joined the IOPC Funds as Head of the External Relations and Conference Department in 2010. Mr Liebert holds a Masters Degree in International Law and a post-graduate Diploma in International Administration and has worked for the last 15 years in the field of marine environment protection and oil spill response. He started his career in the non-governmental sector in France, then joined the International Maritime Organization (IMO) in London and subsequently Oil Spill Response Ltd (OSRL) where he held various positions, including a secondment with IPIECA, the oil and gas industry association and an assignment in Singapore, before moving back to the UK as Global Head of Operations prior to joining the Funds. At the Funds, Mr Liebert is responsible for all aspects of the Department's work, including the oil reporting system, public information including publications and websites, external relations, meetings of the governing bodies and translation.

